Sound The Alarm, Let's Rally Support for Our Girls.

This September we are advancing 100 girls into secondary school and high school.

We are giving 100 disadvantaged girls the opportunity to dream and forge a path for their future because they deserve a better future. According to research the global school enrollment for girls is still below 75%, but for Cameroon, the numbers are even lower. There is still so much work to be done. No Girl Left Behind is committed to helping all girls get the opportunity they deserve. 4 out of 10 girls are married before age 18, this accounts for low educational attainment for girls in Sub-Saharan Africa.

A young woman with braided hair is looking directly at the camera. She is in a room with several sewing machines on wooden desks. In the background, there are wooden chairs and a table. A purple semi-transparent box is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing text.

Over the past 4 years, thousands of Cameroonian girls have been left behind due to political unrest that has displaced millions of families. The forceful shut school in all of Anglophone Cameroon has led to a rapid increase in crime rate, prostitution, teen pregnancy, sex trafficking, and gang activities. Our girls need us now more than ever before. Let us carry each other's burden. let us, love, because we are all called to love. Together we can all lean in and advance 100 girls and more this September. We count on your help to reach our target of enrolling 100 girls this back-to-school season.

Sound the Alarm, let's rally support for girls' education.

MEET OUR NEW AMBASSADOR

Ms. Teri Aina is a junior at Allen high school, graduating in the class of 2022. Teri is a social justice and women's empowerment activist. Her passion for social justice started as early as 13 years old. She joined the women's empowerment club at her school when in the 9th grade. Teri has also been actively involved with the #Bring back our girls' movement. This movement was triggered when on the night of 14–15 April 2014, 276 mostly Christian female students aged from 16 to 18 were kidnapped by the Islamic terrorist group Boko Haram from the Government Girls Secondary School at the town of Chibok in Borno State, Nigeria.

Her goal and vision are to play an active role in liberating women from the struggles that keep them from fulfilling their potential. She also dreams of a world in which all women are empowered to reach beyond the stars and overcome obstacles and challenges that could potentially hinder their success. Teri at this young age is very aware of obstacles that have left most Girls and young women behind, such as; lack of access to opportunities, disparities in access to quality education and healthcare as well as sexism.

Her future aspiration is to become a dermatologist or an attorney. Teri said "Becoming a dermatologist will allow me to help women overcome issues that lead to social stigmatization and that affect their self-esteem and emotional well-being. My grandmother has vitiligo and I know the emotional impact conditions like that can have. Becoming an attorney will allow me to advocate for women's rights and play a part in legislation that will improve the outcome of women all over the world".
